Greeting-You are most carnestly and cordially invited to participate in a grand trade celebration to take place at Fort Worth on our national anciversary, July 4. The feature of the day will be the great procession representing the varied industries of Texas. It is thought it will be the largest of its kind ever held in the state, the principal feature of which is to be the division representing the "grips." Merchants of the Cotton Belt Railroad are particularly invited, and arrangements are made to entertain merchants from all over the state.

This invitation is ex ended through the press to all those who meight not be Lausing train the other day. reached through the mails, and to your fellow travelers throughout the state.
